

PROCESS PRACTITIONER CLASS

A PRACTICUM IN MANIFESTING WHAT YOU WANT

Thursdays, 6:30 pm - 9:00 pm

September 30, October 14 & 28

Location: Santa Rosa (Call for directions)

Continue your journey into wholeness with support from loving peers. This class is for those who have a foundation in Process Coaching and want to apply the coaching tools to more fully manifest what they want in their lives. Sessions are experiential and include group and one-on-one process work.

- Increase your resourcefulness as Healer
- Collaborate with others to both deepen and expand your healing
- Feel more vibrant and alive as you bring parts of self out of your shadow
- Explore the edges of your process, with greater love for who you really are

Pam Bolton, a certified Process Coaching Teacher and Coach with an MA in Transformative Arts, has worked with clients and taught a variety of healing modalities since 1986. Pam says, "I have a passion for exploring the edges of becoming, and a penchant for sharing what I've picked up with others who want to grow into themselves and all their greatness!"

Michele Rocha is a certified Process Coach and teacher-in-training with a passion for healing. Michele's background includes working with people who have experienced sexual abuse and domestic violence; she has several years of leadership in the recovery community as well.

Michele is also a belly dancer!

Tuition for all three classes is $95 and includes telephone-coaching support.
