What if you lived life from Desire?

This series is about discovering your deepest yearning, what really turns you on, and how to manifest more of that passion in your life.

In this class you will learn to access and liberate your true Will, your deepest Desire. Through the powerful tools of Process Coaching you will connect with the essential inner masculine and feminine. When the masculine gives his love to & realizes his true Will in the feminine, real manifesting magic happens. Join us in igniting the magic in your life!

Betty Idarius is the director of Process Coaching Center. With 30 years of experience as a home birth midwife, her devotion to the feminine influences all that she does. "My passion is bringing unconditional loving acceptance to the deepest feeling parts of self and helping others do the same."
